Islam in the West-Max Farrar 2012-06-29 "In recent years the debate on multiculturalism in the UK and other Western societies has focused principally on Islam, and the specific 'problems' said to be posed by Muslims have been invoked to justify the claim that multiculturalism has failed. That claim is opened to scrutiny and challenged in this unique collection through a series of explorations of specific issues and controversies - including the question of the veil, crime, political Islam, the role of Muslim women, sexuality and the Danish cartoons affair - and through more general reflections on the nature of multiculturalism. By exploring the nature of cultural differences and sensitivities and examining the way conflicts have played out, this challenging book makes a wide-ranging contribution to debate and a more constructive inter-cultural engagement. The contributors draw upon the disciplines of social science, ethics, theology, philosophy and education to examine the nature of the issues and flashpoints and to draw out implications for theory, policy and practice." --from back cover.

Mustang by Design-James Dinsmore 2018-09-14 p.p1 {margin: 0.0px 0.0px 0.0px 0.0px; font: 12.0px Arial} Without question, the 1964-1/2 Mustang is one of the most important and influential cars in automotive history. When Ford launched the Mustang, it created an automotive revolution. Award-winning designer and stylist Gale Halderman was at the epicenter of the action at Ford, and, in fact, his initial design sketch formed the basis of the new Mustang. He reveals his involvement in the project as well as telling the entire story of the design and development of the Mustang. Authors and Mustang enthusiasts James Dinsmore and James Halderman go beyond the front doors at Ford into the design center, testing grounds, and Ford facilities to get the real, unvarnished story. Gale Halderman offers a unique behind-the-scenes perspective and firsthand account of the inception, design, development, and production of the original Mustang. With stinging losses from the Edsel fresh in minds at Ford, the Mustang project was an uphill battle from day one. Lee Iacocca and his assembled team had a herculean task to convince Henry Ford II to take a risk on a new concept of automobile, but with the help of Hal Sperlich's detailed market research, the project received the green light. Henry Ford II made it clear that jobs were on the line, including Iacocca's, if it failed. The process of taking a car from sketch to clay model to prototype to preproduction and finally finished model is retraced in insightful detail. During the process, many fascinating experimental cars, such as the Mustang I two-seater, Mustang II prototype, Mustang Allegro, and Shorty, were built. But eventually the Mustang, based on the existing Ford Falcon, received the nod for final production. In a gala event, it was unveiled at the 1964 World's Fair in New York. The Mustang received public accolades and critical acclaim, and soon it became a runaway hit. After the initial success, Ford designers and Gale Halderman designed and developed the first fastback Mustangs to compliment the coupes. The classic Mustang muscle cars to follow, including the GT, Mach 1, and others, are profiled as well. The Mustang changed automotive history and ushered in the pony car era as a nimble, powerful, and elegantly styled sports coupe. But it could so easily have stumbled and wound up on the scrap pile of failed new projects. This is the remarkable and dramatic story of how the Mustang came to life, the demanding design and development process, and, ultimately, the triumph of the iconic American car.

LOVE Fyi-Kamaljit Singh 2017-04-14 LOVE is the greatest blessing to our race and to love is mankind's greatest ability. LOVE holds a special place in our world and also in our vocabulary. According to the dictionary LOVE means 'a strong feeling of emotion'. Fondness, warmth, intimacy, attachment worship, lust, adoration are some words which also tends to describe it. But what exactly does the word LOVE means and why is LOVE so essential in life. It was the question I always had in my mind. As a kid I was told that LOVE was my Mother or LOVE was God.But as a teen, LOVE was a red bleeding heart with a pierced arrow. To sit with a girl on a bench was LOVE, to hold her hand was LOVE to kiss was LOVE. The unusual beating of heart was LOVE, the sudden pain in the chest and the strange sensations in the guts were LOVE.So I thought I had figured out about LOVE and that was all I needed to know about it.Then came the heartbreak and I lost my LOVE. I was informed that LOVE happens only once and it won't happen to me again. That day I thought I lost everything and shall be alone for the rest of my life, with the burden of lost LOVE always in my heart. It was the time of great despair and I tried to find solace in solitary.It was then, when I was introduced to a new meaning of LOVE. They called it pain and suffering. I was told to LOVE was to suffer. I found comfort in the saddest songs available, cutoff from the rest of the world. But still I was pleased in my heart, of at least knowing about LOVE and having learned the art of living with heartbreak.But to my surprise, my exploration about LOVE was still incomplete and yet another mountain awaited me.In strange turns of events, something exceptional happened. I was able to produce the same old feelings and the same old emotions. In my guts there arose the same old sensations but with another girl. This time my heart didn't beat unusually but it skipped every time I laid my eyes on her. It seemed more intense and more real than the last time. It subside pain and suffering. Everything was back to normal. It even seemed better than the old love but how could it be possible. As per my knowledge about love, it should happen only once. If you are lucky, you get married to that one and live happily ever after and if not then you are supposedly incapable to love again. You should be spending the rest of your life with yet another form of love called pain or suffering.In my confusion, I wanted to seek help from the wise, where I can get the most suitable answer, which as a matter of fact, I wanted to hear. Then I was introduced to the most pleasing word suitable for the time. The word was 'infatuation'. There I was told that what happened to me then was my true love and what happened the first time was infatuation. I looked for the word in the dictionary which meant 'an intense but short lived passion or admiration for something or someone. I thought to myself as to how naive I was to think that I was in love when in reality it was just infatuation. This time I was certain beyond any measures that I had figured out about love. But then again I suffered yet another heartbreak followed by another true love. Many more after that and many more thereafter, which left me guessing and all confused. It was then time I went to the most learned and even more wiser of them all for the truth.The most noble told me that its neither love nor infatuation, this was what we all call LIFE. I then realized that I knew nothing about love, infatuation or about life. I found myself exactly where I started. Who would know the exact meaning of love and explain to me clearly as daylight. As I thought for the longest time it occurred to me in a flash. I learned exactly where to go and whom to ask. So finally I decided to learn about love from LOVE itself.So let's embark on a journey through a beautiful and heartwarming love story and together learn about the true meaning of the word LOVE.And it's essence in our life...
