Seeking Truth-Anne R. Dehn 2012-09-01 There was a time when seeing a ghost was considered paranormal and horrifying, but now it's considered typical and expected. Ghosts were as abundant as living human beings. The question is: What type of ghost would it be? Different auras mean different challenges and experiences. However, seeing a ghost and communicating with a ghost are two very different things. Bekah is a Ghost Reader. She has a unique and rare ability to enter a ghost's mind and relive how they died. Afterward, she guides the ghost to finding peace and entering their heaven, if they so desire. If only every case went as smoothly as it should. After her Uncle's unforeseen death, Bekah opens an agency to help ghosts and their loved ones find what they are looking for. Together Bekah and Gabe, her best friend and co-worker, unfortunately stumble across a fury-filled and vengeance-seeking ghost, who has it out for Bekah. Little to her knowledge, Bekah is starting a journey that begins with a blossoming sexual attraction between her and Gabe and ends with the most shocking resolution to the biggest mystery in her life...her parents horrifying murder from thirteen years earlier. Will she be able to survive the mind-blowing, catastrophic events that lead up to the final battle? Find out in this tale of ghosts, mystery and love. It will make you yearn for more as you will be the one Seeking Truth.

The Space Beyond-Kristie Cook 2014-05-19 New Adult Paranormal Romance ** Mature Content ** Recommended for ages 16+ due to sexual situations and language This book includes realistic scenes of domestic violence that are not gratuitously graphic, but may be disturbing to sensitive readers. Hearts break. Souls shatter. Love lies in The Space Beyond. As members of the Phoenix, Jeric and Leni are thrust into their new lives, expected to lead Earth's Guardians. But Leni struggles with trusting her own soul, and Jeric is more concerned about keeping Leni safe than meeting others' demands. When Darkness swarms Lake Haven, they embark on their first mission with little preparation and no idea which soul the Dark hunts. Born and raised in Lake Haven, Bex hopes to escape her small-town life, ideally in the arms of her soul mate. She knows he exists, and her heart aches with the need to find him. When her long-lost mama calls to announce she's knockin' on death's door, Bex reluctantly makes the trip to see the uncaring bitch (bless her heart), only to be knocked off her feet by the sexy and charming Dr. Mason Hayes. Is he really The One? Leni's soul felt an instant connection to Bex, but if Bex found her soul mate, she isn't their mission. So who is, and why does Leni instinctively feel drawn to her? Can Leni even trust her intuition? And will Jeric step up and lead when the time comes or continue to hold them back? If they don't learn to trust themselves and each other quickly, Darkness will claim them all...along with the rest of Earth's souls.

Bitter-Shakela James 2017-06-16 My intentions were never to be a "baby mama." I knew for sure that I'd have a college degree, a house, and a career, and a husband before I brought a life into this world. That was the reason I studied so hard in school, didn't hang out with the popular kids, and didn't rebel against my parents. When I turned 17 years old and became the Valedictorian of my class, I knew I was on the right track. I was ready to go to college and embark on my journey towards becoming a corporate lawyer. Never in a million years did I think that by the time I was eighteen years old, I would be pushing out a baby. Never did I think my life could change so drastically. I had no degree, no career, no house, and no husband; but I had a daughter. I still remember the night everything changed between us. Or maybe things had already changed, and it was the first time I noticed it. I know for sure that it was the first time I had ever accepted the fact that I was truly just a "baby mama" and Flip had no real plans of making me his wife. I remember feeling so many emotions that night. I was hurt, angry, confused, disappointed, and betrayed. But I was still very much in love. I loved him too much to hate him so quickly, so I resented him and I hated myself for being so naive. It didn't take long for that resentment to magnify because once the truth is out, you begin to connect the dots to every lie you've ever been fed and it makes you wonder if any of it was ever real. The moment you lose respect for someone, everything changes. The love is still there, but it's not the same. You become guarded, you become defensive, and sometimes you just want to hurt them the way they hurt you. That's when they start to call you bitter. I never pictured myself becoming a bitter baby mama, but you know what? Maybe they're right. Maybe I am bitter but I feel like I have every damn right to be. This is my story.

Requies Dawn-J. L. Forrest 2017-05-17 Requies Dawn is the thrilling first installment of the Eternal Requiem trilogy by author J.L. Forrest. In the far future, the cosmos has been reshaped by forces more powerful than even the great Atreiani, Sultah yw Sabi. Though she once ruled all the System, aided by her brothers and sisters, she now finds herself a pariah and the enemy of her own kind, locked in a desperate bid to undo the horrors of her own past-and to survive in a world she no longer knows. To succeed, she will need the aid of an E'cwn huntress, Nyahri, whose own blood history is tied inseparably to the machinations of new gods, old spirits, and an ancient love that cannot die. In addition to the Eternal Requiem trilogy, J.L. Forrest is the author of numerous short stories, which have appeared in the likes of Analog Science Fiction and Fact, including the collections Delicate Ministrations and Minuscule Truths.

Piper Levine, a Gypsy's Truth-Eris Kelli 2014-07-18 "I was enthralled from the first paragraph..." says New York Times Best Selling Author Melody Anne Piper LeVine is the daughter of wealthy Senator, Harold and Katrine or so she thought. When a stranger arrives in the night and throws her identity into question, Piper is forced to uncover secrets of her true origin. Treacherous demons from a past she never knew she had, are coming for her. Only the Gypsies know how to deal with the monsters of myth. Nicholas proves less than truthful from the get-go but who else can she hold onto in a sea of mystic if not hostile strangers? He is dangerous, captivating, and the only one who she knows will stand toe to toe with the creatures of the dark that seek her. What will his loyalties cost and is it a price she can afford to pay? In search for the truth, Piper will find more than her identity. She will discover her destiny, what she is made of, and the family that determines her fate.

Tears-Matt Shaw 2016-09-26 A Collection of Matt Shaw's heartbreaking dramas Matt Shaw does not just write horror. In fact, when asked what his favourite books are, he often names the tales collected within this set. Stories of heartbreak, loss and grief - all with an element of hope... A hope we often forget when dealing with grief. Contained within this collection Heaven's Calling BOY: Built to Love The Missing Years of Thomas Pritchard (unpublished short story) Alone Heaven's Calling Josh and Holly could face anything thrown at them all the time they had each other. Their love would conquer anything and the world was their oyster. But when a tragic accident tears Josh away from Holly she realises that, without her husband, she cannot cope and her world begins to crumble; her loss being more than she can handle. Until, that is, she receives a phone call. Her late husband. The same time every day; he doesn't appear to know what has happened to him and Holly can't bring herself to tell him. She isn't even sure if it really is him calling or whether it's all in her tormented mind. Especially seeing as the calls only happen when she is alone. Is it all in her head, has she gone mad, or is heaven really calling? Boy: Built to Love No parent should have to bury their own child and yet that was exactly what they had to do. Stillborn; a young boy never to open his eyes to take in the world around him. And now Lucy and Jack's marriage was on the verge of crumbling under the strain of the grief they struggled to cope with. A grief made worse when the doctors tell them they'll never be able to have a child of their own due to complications from the last pregnancy. But what if it didn't have to be that way? What if there was a way of using science and technology to create a son they could love? What if Jack was able to use Artificial Intelligence to create A Boy: Built to Love? Is the answer to their problems to be found within the world of science-fiction or are they setting themselves up for yet more grief and sadness? The Missing Years of Thomas Pritchard August 3rd. 6:03am. The tranquil summer's morning was shattered by the desperate screams of Thomas' mother echoing down the near deserted suburban street. The few people milling about outside getting ready for their daily business had said they couldn't make out what the cries were about when they were interviewed. Not initially. Not until Anne, a pretty woman in her early thirties with shoulder length blonde hair, spilled out onto the street wearing nothing more than her dressing gown and slippers anxiously calling out for her five year old son, Thomas, to come out from wherever he was hiding. Eye witnesses reported Anne was closely followed by her husband Bill - a professional, clean-shaven man in his late thirties with dark, short hair - half dressed for work in his suit trousers and unbuttoned white shirt, and that he too looked just as frantic as the mother did. The year was 2003; the year Thomas disappeared from his home without a trace. * * * * * August 3rd. 6:03am. A young, fragile looking hand knocked confidently on the white PVC of the front door to number twenty-two. The hand belonged to a smartly dressed, skinny fourteen year old, fresh-faced boy. Whilst waiting for an answer to his knocking he slid a brown leather satchel off his shoulder down onto the floor as though the weight was too much for him to bear any more. He went to knock again but stopped himself when he heard the sound of footsteps from the other side of the door as the freshly woken homeowner came to answer his initial knocking. There was the slightest of pauses as keys were twisted in locks before the door opened as much as the strong, gold, security chain would permit it to. "Can I help you?" asked the homeowner, a frail looking woman in her late sixties. "Where's my mum?" asked the boy. The year was 2012; the year Thomas came home.

ShadowFae-Kathleen Kerridge 2016-02-05 His life is in ruins; his innocence has been torn apart. Dare returns to his own world ashamed and alone. Desperate for a solution to end the war that has devastated his world and shattered his dreams, Dare is prepared to use all the power of the gods if it means he can avenge his lover's death. But he is not as alone as he might have thought. Dare soon finds out the war isn't as clear-cut as he had assumed, and he can't get vengeance if he can't tell who his enemies are. He learns to question everything he thought he knew. As his power grows, Dare leaves his childhood firmly behind, and discovers friendship and freedom can be found in the most unlikely places. Dare's travels take him through his own world and beyond, and his feelings for the mysterious man intent on saving his soul grow stronger with each sunrise. Dare realises love truly has no limits and no boundaries: not even the grave itself.

Blood Work-Kim Harrison 2012-02-22 When Ivy met Rachel, the result wasn't exactly love at first sight. Sparks flew as the living vampire and the stubborn witch learned what it meant to be partners. Now Kim Harrison, the acclaimed author of Pale Demon and Black Magic Sanction, turns back the clock to tell the tale—in an original full-color graphic novel. Hot-as-hell, tough-as-nails detective Ivy Tamwood has been demoted from homicide down to lowly street-crime detail. As if rousting trolls and policing pixies instead of catching killers wasn't bad enough, she's also been saddled with a newbie partner who's an earth witch. It's enough to make any living vampire bare her fangs. But when a coven of murderous witches begins preying on werewolves, Rachel Morgan quickly proves she's a good witch who knows how to be a badass. Together, Ivy and Rachel hit the mean streets to deal swift justice to the evil element among Cincinnati's supernatural set. But there's more to their partnership than they realize—and more blood and black magic in their future than they bargained for.

Blood Crime (Graphic Novel)-Kim Harrison 2012-10-30 You can't tell the story of how it all began for supernatural cops Ivy Tamwood and Rachel Morgan without telling how it all nearly ended. The fiery living vampire and erstwhile earth witch never asked to be paired up in the first place. And having to work Inderland Security's crummiest beat—busting two-bit paranormal street punks—sure didn't sweeten the deal. But when it counts, Ivy and Rachel always have each other's backs. They'd better—because someone just hung targets on both of them. It doesn't take a hotshot homicide detective to know that nearly getting flattened by a falling gargoye or impaled by a lead pipe aren't on-the-job accidents. But it doesn't seem possible that the class of crooks Ivy and Rachel routinely collar could kill anything but brain cells. So who put Cincinnati's tough and tender twosome on their "to do in" list? Is Ivy's vampire master, the powerful and seductive Piscary, jealous of her growing bloodlust (and just plain lust) for Rachel? Or have forces unknown—living or undead—made the partners prey in a deadly witch (and vampire) hunt? Before this case is cracked, Ivy and Rachel will face down vicious dogs, speeding locomotives, rogue bloodsuckers, and their own dark desires; spells will be cast and blood will be spilled; and Kim Harrison's hair-raising, heart-racing, dark urban world of magic and monsters will leap howling from the pages of her second electrifying, full-color graphic novel.

His eyes searched rapidly from side to side on the trail for the rattlesnake. There he was. The snake was curled up tight on the side of the trail, head raised up about six inches, tongue flicking to taste for them, harshly slit eyes darting around, tail raised and rattling faster than a hummingbird's wings. "What do I do?" David hissed. "I don't..." "Put your foot down very, very slowly." The gruff voice came from behind a tree to their left. They looked over at a bona fide mountain man. Huge barrel chest, bucket hat with fishing flies stuck through it, old-school camo fatigues, backpack the size of a small child, ragged black beard spiking out which was threaded into a beaded Viking braid, grey showing through the strands. ... Follow David and Jack on their journey through the PCT. Beauty and danger are around every corner. Not to mention the interesting characters they find in the wilderness, and MUCH MUCH MORE!
