Writing Down the Bones-Natalie Goldberg 2016-02-02 For more than thirty years Natalie Goldberg has been challenging and cheering on writers with her books and workshops. In her groundbreaking first book, she brings together Zen meditation and writing in a new way. Writing practice, as she calls it, is no different from other forms of Zen practice—"it is backed by two thousand years of studying the mind." This thirtieth-anniversary edition includes new forewords by Julia Cameron and Bill Addison. It also includes a new preface in which Goldberg reflects on the enduring quality of the teachings here. She writes, "What have I learned about writing over these thirty years? I've written fourteen books, and it's the practice here in Bones that is the foundation, sustaining and building my writing voice, that keeps me honest, teaches me how to endure the hard times and how to drop below discursive thinking, to taste the real meat of our minds and the life around us." Kids Journal to Write In - Draw and Write Journal-Blank Journals 2015-10-16 Kids Journal To Write In: Draw and Write Journals are great for getting youngsters to develop stories and create a keepsake book that can be used for years and years. Exit West-Mohsin Hamid 2018-02-27 "In a country teetering on the brink of civil war, two young people meet--sensual, fiercely independent Nadia and gentle, restrained Saeed. They embark on a furtive love affair, thrust into premature intimacy by the unrest roiling their city. When it explodes, turning familiar streets into a patchwork of checkpoints and bomb blasts, they begin to hear whispers about doors--doors that can whisk people far away, if perilously and for a price. As violence and the threat of violence escalate, Nadia and Saeed decide that they no longer have a choice. Leaving their homeland and their old lives behind, they find a door and step through. An epic compressed into a slender page-turner, Exit West is both completely of our time and for all time."- Your Creative Career-Anna Sabino 2018-01-22 Anna Sabino is an artist, but certainly not a starving one. You find a small door on a tree in the forest. Who lives there? Do you knock? Some shady people are after you and you have to make a quick escape from work (or school). How does it go down? You find a five-inch tall dragon that seems to take a liking to you. What would you do with him? Describe your dream vacation. - Reflective: Is your danger reflex "fight" or "flight"? How do you know? What's the most beautiful thing you've ever seen with your own eyes? Everybody is good at something. But what are you really, really bad at? - Ambitious: If you could have any job in the world, what would it be? What accomplishment are you proud of yourself for (no matter how small)? Imagine that you have enough money that you never need to work again. Would you still have a job? If not, how would you spend your time? In your opinion, what leads to a full life? Think about the last time you were passionate about something. What was it? - Nostalgic: What has been the happiest period of time in your life so far? Talk about your favorite summertime memory. - Thoughtful: Describe what a utopia would be like. If you could look into your own future, would you? - Silly: You have to commit the perfect crime. What do you do and how? You've been kicked out of your own country! Where do you move to? - Romantic: Do you need a love life to be happy? Is there a "soul mate" out there for everyone? - Blue: Is it more important to allow yourself to experience sadness, or to focus on the positive? Describe the most peaceful place you can imagine. - Lighthearted: Are you a night owl or an early bird? Describe the last dream you remember having. Are Prisons Obsolete?-Angela Y. Davis 2011-01-04 With her characteristic brilliance, grace and radical audacity, Angela Y. Davis has put the case for the latest abolition movement in American life: the abolition of the prison. As she quite correctly notes, American life is replete with abolition movements, and when they were engaged in these struggles, their chances of success seemed almost unthinkable. For generations of Americans, the abolition of slavery was sheerest illusion. Similarly,the entrenched system of racial segregation seemed to last forever, and generations lived in the midst of the practice, with few predicting its passage from custom. The brutal, exploitation (dare one say lucrative?) convict-lease system that succeeded formal slavery reaped millions to southern jurisdictions (and untold miseries for tens of thousands of men, and women). Few predicted its passing from the American penal landscape. Davis expertly argues how social movements transformed these social, political and cultural institutions, and made such practices untenable. In Are Prisons Obsolete?, Professor Davis seeks to illustrate that the time for the prison is approaching an end. She argues forthrightly for "decarceration", and argues for the transformation of the society as a whole. 500 Journal Writing Prompts: Categorized Journal Prompts for Self-Discovery, Life Reflections and Creating a Compelling Future-MacKenzie Reed 2019-03-06 In "500 Journal Writing Prompts," you get a vast selection of categorized pre-written self-discovery prompts for you to write out. A chimera.After years of abuse and rejection, 19-year-old Evelyn Kingston is ready for a fresh start in a new city, where no one knows her name. The esteemed Billington University in Southern California seems like the perfect place to reinvent herself to live the life of an ordinary human.But things at Billington aren't as they seem. In a school filled with prodigies, socialites, and the leaders of tomorrow, Eve finds that the complex social hierarchy makes passing as a human much harder than she had anticipated. Even worse, Billington is harboring a secret of its own: Interlopers have infiltrated the university, and their sinister plans are targeted at chimeras-like Eve. Instantly, Eve's new life takes a drastic turn. In a time filled with chaos, is the world focusing on the wrong enemy? And when the situation at Billington shifts from hostile to dangerous, will Eve remain in the shadows, or rise up and fight? Burn After Writing-Sharon Jones 2015-08-04 As adults, we've learned to represent ourselves in a manner that's pleasing to others?no gaffes, bits of weirdness, or embarrassing moments.
