Unfortunately, she sees it everywhere. She doesn't mean to take things. Just like she doesn't mean to fib about her career. Or continue eating chocolate. Or wait for a call from Ray, the Beautiful Musician Who Must Have Been in a Horrible Accident that Broke His Dialing Fingers. Melanie's number one rule—in life, love, and theft—is this: Don't Get Caught. But sometimes, even the best kleptomaniac has an off day. Now, with every part of her life veering out of control, Melanie's met a guy whose heart is hers for the taking—if she's brave enough to pay the price . . . Cravings-Christie Rushenberg 2012-03-09 "A person should eat to live, not live to eat," Mom reminded me with a frown directed at the syrup bottle I was clutching. She just doesn't understand that sometimes Mrs. Butterworth, Chef Boyardee, and Sarah Lee are the only friends I have in the world. Meet Maud Grover, a sarcastic, antisocial fourteen-year-old who eats her feelings and talks to food. During her first terrifying year of high school, she meets four people who will change her life: An Enemy - Gabby, a skinny cheerleader craving the limelight A Friend - Audrey, a theatrical hopeless romantic craving the ideal A Crush - Zeek, a dashing socialite craving popularity A Confidant - Black Jack, a roguish sk8ter craving authenticity In this story about food, flaws, failings, and faith, each will show Maud who she truly is. I Hate Valentine's Day-Bennett Madison 2004-12-28 Whether single, dating, married, or divorced, the dreaded February 14 arrives each year to ambush our self-esteem. No other 24-hour period convinces otherwise happy folk that they're in fact social pariahs. But now comes protection from the ritual onslaught of Auden's 12 Songs, saccharine cards, and suffocating expectations. I HATE VALENTINE'S DAY is a bitingly funny guide to getting through the Big Day painlessly, including tips on people and places it's best to avoid ('Indulge your chain restaurant cravings because no one will (or should) be celebrating at Harvesters'), ways to take your mind off being single ('Dress up like an exiled member of the royal family who has hit the skids'), and last-resort measures ('Invent a long-distance relationship'). I HATE VALENTINE'S DAY charts a welcome path back to the innocent days of candy hearts.

Valentine's Day-Lesley Zobian 2004-11 The path of true love rarely runs smoothly. Sometimes it needs a gentle helping hand - and sometimes it needs a good sharp kick up the backside! This is the story of one woman's search for love, a man's desire for revenge, a youth's longing for a purpose in life, a tax inspector's quest for just repayment, a young woman's bewilderment at being hooked into a situation getting seriously out of control, and a feral cat's wish for a bit of peace and quiet.

Echoes-Margaret Adkins 2008-04-29 This book is about my life from the age of two years on. I wrote this book so that those that come after me understand what life was like growing in a family of seven children with a perfect stay at home mother and a father that was a stranger to his children. The depression years and living in a small town effected out lives until the 1040s. Our struggles and rewards were about equal. I hope those who read my stories can at some point identify with the characters and events and laugh or cry as the story effects them.

The Trouble With Valentine's Day-Rachel Gibson 2012-03-20 It's the one day each year when being single is a sin . . . The Trouble With Valentine's Day? It just plain stinks! Kate Hamilton should know. Dumped by her boyfriend, burnt out by her job, she's returned to Gospel, Idaho, where a Mountain Momma Crafters' original poetry reading is about as good as it gets on a Friday night. Then her first attempted seduction of a hunky stranger is completely rejected. So much for her self-esteem! It turns out that Rob Sutter, former ice hockey madman, owner of Sutter's Sports—and the hunky stranger who told her to get lost—has been more than burned by love and isn't looking for a relationship. But then he and Kate find themselves in an ultra-compromising position in the M&S Market after-hours, giving the phrase "clean up in aisle five" a whole new meaning, and causing a whole lot of gossip in Gospel . . .

Funny Valentine's Day Jokes to Tickle Your Funny Bone-Linda Bozzo 2013-01-01 "Read jokes, limericks, tongue twisters, and knock-knock jokes about Valentine's Day. Also find out fun facts about the holiday"-- Provided by publisher.

The Author of Love-Joc Anderson, PsyD. 2011-07-08 Throughout history, God has been depicted variously as a judgmental tyrant, a grand conciliator, and even as a rather low-key comic, portrayed by the cigar-smoking George Burns in the movie "Oh God!" The question that's begging to be answered is: Who is God? This devotional evolved out of one person's desire to portray God in a truer light. In the Book of Job, God reprimanded Job's friends for failing to speak truthfully about Him. They misrepresented His character. Job, on the other hand, understood His Maker and was, therefore, the single voice of truth in an otherwise corrupt world. Can you honestly say that you know your Creator? Can you speak truthfully about Him? This devotional will help you get to know the real God, who is neither the judgmental tyrant nor the light-weight movie character. He is, if nothing else, a God of love and compassion. At the conclusion of your devotionals, I have formulated a "Love Quotient" (L.Q.) test to measure the depth of your love. The questions are designed to be thought-provoking and insightful. You may also find them a bit daunting and uncomfortable. Answer each question according to your beliefs. There are no wrong or right answers. It is my hope you'll find this little exercise revealing and instructive of how you love. The answers and Key is also included. Your heart is what you're all about. May you understand God's love for you.
