Ravi Anand, an author and motivational blogger, seeks to answer that question in this inspirational collection of maxims and principles. The magical words he shares include: Today give someone a precious smile so contagious that it flows from your face to theirs in a fraction of a second. The true spirit of life is that when one dream fails or is shattered, you chase another even bigger dream, and life goes on. When the mirror is intact, people stop and admire their beauty. When the mirror is broken, people step away and walk past. The fact is only the perception changes, not the quality of image visible. There is no benchmark of success. If you try and imitate, then you are setting a limit. Remember, as athletes say, records are meant to be broken.

The secret for creating "magic" in our careers, our organizations, and our lives is simple: outstanding leadership—the kind that inspires employees, delights customers, and achieves extraordinary business results. No one knows more about this kind of leadership than Lee Cockerell, the man who ran Walt Disney World® Resort operations for over a decade. And in Creating Magic, he shares the leadership principles that not only guided his own journey from a poor farm boy in Oklahoma to the head of operations for a multibillion dollar enterprise, but that also soon came to form the cultural bedrock of the world's number one vacation destination. But as Lee demonstrates, great leadership isn't about mastering impossibly complex management theories. We can all become outstanding leaders by following the ten practical, common sense strategies outlined in this remarkable book. As straightforward as they are profound, these leadership lessons include: Everyone is important. Make your people your brand. Burn the free fuel: appreciation,
