The People Code and the Character Code-Taylor Hartman 2017-10-10 A must-have omnibus edition of The People Code and The Character Code with a new Introduction from Dr. Taylor Hartman, celebrating thirty years of his revolutionary work on understanding motivation and character. As an author, psychologist, and leadership coach, Dr. Taylor Hartman offers an incisive system for improving your understanding of yourself and others and strengthening your day-to-day relationships. In first The People Code and then The Character Code, Dr. Hartman introduces the Color Code Personality Profile, explaining why people do what they do by identifying four basic personality types and showing you how to use “color profiles” to cultivate rich and balanced character and relationships. All people, reveals Dr. Hartman, possess one of four driving “core motives,” classified by color: Red (“power wielders”), Blue (“do-gooders”), White (“peacekeepers”), and Yellow (“fun lovers”). Once you understand your color code—and the color codes of others—you can analyze your own innate personality and use that knowledge to balance your relationships, both personal and professional. The essence of character is the ability to enhance not only your own life, but the lives of others as well. Together, The People Code and The Character Code provide a universal message, simple and profound: life is about relationships.

The parish registers of England-John Charles Cox 1910-01-01

The People Code-Taylor Hartman 2007-09-18 In his life-changing book, Dr. Taylor Hartman introduces you to the People Code and why people do what they do. The concept of Motive is a fresh method for analyzing your own innate personality as well as that of those around you. You then have the ability to utilize that knowledge to improve workplace and personal relationships. As an author, psychologist, and leadership coach, Dr. Hartman offers a remarkably astute system for segmenting everyone into specific Motive-types denoted by a color: Red (power wielders), Blue (do-gooders), White (peacekeepers), and Yellow (fun lovers). He then explains how to ensure that all possible alliances between them function at optimum effectiveness. If you struggle with self-acceptance and have questions about why you and others act the way you do, Dr. Hartman and The People Code can help you maximize your life success by improving your day-to-day relationships.

Lord Keeper-Tarah Scott 2013 No man bargains for war when he chooses a bride, but when he steals her from holy ground, he can expect nothing less. Iain MacPherson swore he was nothing like his father, but his kidnapping of Victoria Hockley, the Countess of Lansbury is the first step toward the same obsessive jealousy that fueled his father's life-long feud against the chief Iain's mother loved. A kiss, a midnight race for freedom, and a royal missive force Victoria into her captor's arms.

Hallowed ground can't save her from the devil that followed her from England. Yet the Scottish lord who swears to protect her is far more dangerous.

Renaissance Thought and the Arts-Paul Oskar Kristeller 2020-07-07 Written by an eminent authority on the Renaissance, these classic essays deal not only with Paul Kristeller's speciality, Renaissance humanism and philosophy, but also with Renaissance theories of art. The focus of the collection is on topics such as humanist learning, humanist moral thought, the diffusion of humanism, Platonism, music and learning during the early Renaissance, and the modern system of arts in relation to the Renaissance. For this volume the author has written a new preface, a new essay, and an afterword.

Boy Genius-Sonya Falls 2017-01-23 Through several writing groups, I have created short stories and these are what make up this book. I started writing with a group in New Jersey and those stories were well received, critiqued and polished by my fellow writers. When I moved back to North Carolina, I continued to write with groups and together, we have learned much about writing. I thank them for all their kind words and suggestions.

Drive-Gregg Bordowitz 2002 Gregg Bordowitz: Drive presents a series of essays and texts surrounding Gregg Bordowitz's films Fast Trip, Long Drop and Habit. Images from Bordowitz's installation Drive, exhibited at the Museum of Contemporary Art, Chicago April 6-July 7, 2002, are also featured. Bordowitz made a big splash in 1993 with Fast Trip, Long Drop. It featured a blend of documentary footage and fictional narrative to focus on his HIV positive diagnosis, the diagnosis of a friend's breast cancer, and the recent deaths of his grandparents. Instead of creating a somber ode to mortality, Bordowitz offered a darkly humorous essay on history, illness, AIDS activism, and representational strategies. Habit (2002) is the sequel to Fast Trip, Long Drop. It follows the regimens, routines, and thoughts that result from Bordowitz's decade of life as a person with AIDS. Coupled with this are new interviews with some of the same faces featured in Fast Trip, Long Drop, the introduction of new friends and confidants, and extensive footage of AIDS activists in South Africa fighting and organizing to gain access to the same drugs that are keeping Bordowitz and many of his friends alive. The tone of this film is slower from the earlier one, reflecting a change in the tenor of AIDS activism, the fact that South Africa 2001 is not New York 1992, and the new domesticity and responsibility that governs Bordowitz's life today. For the book, Brodowitz assembled a collection of authors whose views on AIDS and/or aesthetics he freely respects. Topics range from critical assessments of his films, to the moralizing tenor found in popular images of homosexuality and AIDS, the current state of the aesthetic avant-garde, political activism, race and its complicated relation to sexuality and public policy, living with illness, and a short fiction work on the mental space of illness.

Hamlet: Critical Essays-Dr. D. S. Salunke 2015-11-05 Unlike many traditional books on Shakespeares play Hamlet, this book explores themes and issues which have received very little or no critical attention but they are crucial in understanding the play as a whole. Though in every literary period great philosophers and critics inevitably commented on the play, a host of other issues remained unexplored. During the last four centuries, theories have surely enhanced the artistic taste of the play but taken the readers away from the text of the play. Hence book strikes a balance between the central character of Hamlet and the important technical aspects of the play. These themes include art, diplomacy and international relation, natural and unnatural, evolution of conflict, contrast and parallelism, quest for certain knowledge and Marxism. Though psychoanalysis figures time and again in this book, it offers new dimensions of characters and events. The ideas contained in this book are original and the insightful. The language is simple and lucid and hence the book is pretty useful to students, teachers, research scholars and amateurs and common readers who wish to appreciate the play in a new light. Its strength lies in that it helps students and researchers write coherent critical essays on a divergent themes and issues that repeatedly figure up in the play. It beckons the readers to reinterpret the great tragedy by reading it through contexts.

Word of Yhvh Bible Vol. Three-Mary Lewis 2018-12-25 The Word of YHVH Bible opens with a unifying and enlightening introduction to the Bible and YHVH. It is a unique study Bible about moving today's much divided Churches back to the beliefs of the Church Jesus started in the first century. Being careful to agree with the whole Bible, annotations focus on the context and intent of the Scriptures, rather than denominational doctrines. The effect on Bible understanding is to expose diverse interpretations without accusation.Alterations in this Bible are made by careful examination of context and original languages to restore its original intent of truth about YHVH and his Son's first and second coming.Going forward, restoration of YHVH's truth is an ongoing process by the true Spirit of YHVH within the pages of the Bible and in the human heart."All scripture [is] given by inspiration of YHVH, and [is] profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness" (2Timothy 3:16) The Scriptures Timothy referenced were the Hebrew Scriptures of the Old Testament. Jesus said he came to fulfill the Law and prophecy, meaning the New Testament is built on the foundation of the Old Testament.The Word of YHVH Bible highlights the basics of what the Bible teaches within the six generations, or new-beginnings, of humanity marked by the lives of Adam, Noah, Moses, Daniel, and Jesus.Adam was the beginning of humanity. Sin gone rampant by the temptations of Satan necessitated a new beginning with Noah and his family surviving the Great Flood. Sin again necessitated a new beginning with the Law of YHVH given to Moses. The Law told mankind what sin is and how to avoid the temptations of Satan.Sin again necessitated certain constraints in understanding YHVH's end time prophecies concerning the first and second coming of the Son of YHVH, so, he gave Daniel the seventy-sevens prophecy for a calendar of his timing for Jesus, including his return and millennial reign on earth. The remaining years of this creation, as we know it, is the last generation within the timing of YHVH's calendar prophesied by Daniel as the seventy sevens of years. (Daniel 9:24-27) The calendar is "this generation or age" Jesus spoke of, that would not pass away until all is fulfilled. (Matthew 24:34; Mark 13:30; Luke 21:32)Through all these generations, it is and always has been one core Bible doctrine under which six main Bible doctrines are established:YHVH Elohim is the core. The Bible makes it clear that YHVH Elohim is the one and only living God with none before, during, or after him. He is the center of his Kingdom without any time or space limitations. He said so in Jeremiah 23:23-24, "23-[Am] I Elohim at hand, said YHVH, and not Elohim afar off? 24--Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? -- Said YHVH. Do I not fill heaven and earth? -- Said YHVH."Notice that YHVH said "I" not "we."The expectation of YaHavah for all his creation is trustworthy love for him. He gave his angels and humans the gift of choice to love him or not. Both Moses and Jesus condensed YaHavah's Ten Commandments into the greatest commandment of all. Love YHVH your Elohim with all your heart, mind, and soul, and your neighbor as yourself. If you love YHVH, then you love his Son, Jesus, also.
