Marilyn and Me-Ji Min Lee 2020-07-23 'A beautifully woven page turner' Heather Morris, author of The Tattooist of Auschwitz A gripping and heartwrenching novel of damage and survival, grief and unexpected solace, Marilyn and Me is a fascinating - and timely - insight into an extraordinary time and place How do you translate the present, when you can't let go of the past? It is the winter of 1954 and in the rubble-strewn aftermath of the Korean war Marilyn Monroe has come to Seoul to perform to the US soldiers stationed there. Incongruous in her silk dress and flawless makeup, she sings of seduction and love, dazzling battle-scarred Americans and Koreans alike. Alice, the woman chosen to be Marilyn's translator, was once Kim Ae-sun, before her name was stolen from her - along with so much else - by the war. With her prematurely grey hair, her fraying lace gloves and the memories that will engulf her if she lets them, Alice works as a typist for the US military. It is a job that has enabled her to survive, and to forget. As they travel across the country, over the four days of Marilyn's tour, the two women begin to form an unlikely friendship. But when Alice becomes embroiled in a sting operation involving the entrapment of a Communist spy she is forced to confront the past she has been trying so hard to escape.

Gold Fame Citrus-Claire Vaye Watkins 2015-09-29 Named a Best Book of the Year by The Washington Post, NPR, Vanity Fair, LA Times, San Francisco Chronicle, Huffington Post, The Atlantic, Refinery 29, Men's Journal, Ploughshares, Lit Hub, Book Riot, Los Angeles Magazine, Powells, BookPage and Kirkus Reviews The much-anticipated first novel from a Story Prize-winning "5 Under 35" fiction writer. In 2012, Claire Vaye Watkins's story collection, Battleborn, swept nearly every award for short fiction. Now this young writer, widely heralded as a once-in-a-generation talent, returns with a first novel that harnesses the sweeping vision and deep heart that made her debut so arresting to a love story set in a devastatingly imagined near future: Unrelenting drought has transfigured Southern California into a surreal, phantasmagoric landscape. With the Central Valley barren, underground aquifer drained, and Sierra snowpack entirely depleted, most "Mojavs," prevented by both armed vigilantes and an indifferent bureaucracy from freely crossing borders to lush regions, have allowed themselves to be evacuated to internment camps. In Los Angeles' Laurel Canyon, two young Mojavs—Luz, once a poster child for the Bureau of Conservation and its enemies, and Ray, a veteran of the "forever war" turned surfer—squat in a starlet's abandoned mansion. Holdouts, they subsist on rationed cola and whatever they can loot, scavenge, and improvise. The couple's fragile love somehow blooms in this arid place, and for the moment, it seems enough. But when they cross paths with a mysterious child, the thirst for a better future begins. They head east, a route strewn with danger: sinkholes and patrolling authorities, bandits and the brutal, omnipresent sun. Ghosting after them are rumors of a visionary dowser—a diviner for water—and his followers, who whispers say have formed a colony at the edge of a mysterious sea of dunes. Immensely moving, profoundly disquieting, and mind-blowingly original, Watkins's novel explores the myths we believe about others and tell about ourselves, the double-edged power of our most cherished relationships, and the shape of hope in a precarious future that may be our own. From the Hardcover edition.

This book is first hand advice from Jake Carpenter-Thompson who graduated with a perfect 4.0 GPA and Summa Cum Laude from his undergraduate university and went on to attend a prestigious MD/PhD program. This is hardcore straightforward advice from someone who has been there and done all that you or your friend/family member wants to accomplish in college. This book will make college life enjoyable, amazing and easy for anyone who takes the time to read this short simple straightforward book. Jake said "Look this book could have been 300+ pages, but as a student myself, I do not want to be spending weeks trying to read through a book about college when I should be out there actually being a part of college. That is why I thought it was very important to keep the book short, sweet and jam-packed with all the critical, most important information students need so they can read the book in one afternoon then use the knowledge practically in college life." That is one of the major features of this book that sets it apart from those other so called college guides (more like time drains). The second major factor that sets this book apart is that all the information comes from Jake Carpenter-Thompson, a student that graduated with a perfect 4.0 in undergraduate earning the coveted title Summa Cum Laude, and is now enrolled in a prestigious MD/PhD program getting his medical tuition paid for by the university. If you want great advice that has been tried and proven, this book is the source to get it from. Think of it like this, if you want to be a movie star who would you rather talk to, a non-famous person who thinks they can help you because they have heard about how to be a movie star, or would you rather find out from a bonafide starlet. That is what this book is all about, information directly from Jake who has gotten a 4.0 in undergrad and gotten into a prestigious MD/PhD program.
