Virgil, Aeneid, 4.1-299-Ingo Gildenhard 2012 Love and tragedy dominate book four of Virgil's most powerful work, building on the violent emotions invoked by the storms, battles, warring gods, and monster-plagued wanderings of the epic's opening. Destined to be the founder of Roman culture, Aeneas, nudged by the gods, decides to leave his beloved Dido, causing her suicide in pursuit of his historical destiny. A dark plot, in which erotic passion culminates in sex, and sex leads to tragedy and death in the human realm, unfolds within the larger horizon of a supernatural sphere, dominated by power-conscious divinities. Dido is Aeneas' most significant other, and in their encounter Virgil explores timeless themes of love and loyalty, fate and fortune, the justice of the gods, imperial ambition and its victims, and ethnic differences. This course book offers a portion of the original Latin text, study questions, a commentary, and interpretative essays. Designed to stretch and stimulate readers, Ingo Gildenhard's incisive commentary will be of particular interest to students of Latin at both A2 and undergraduate level. It extends beyond detailed linguistic analysis to encourage critical engagement with Virgil's poetry and discussion of the most recent scholarly thought.

The Arrangement 24 (the Ferro Family)-Holly M. Ward 2018-07-31 "When the dust clears, it's time for life to move forward with Sean Ferro. His beautiful wind swept hair and his jaw dusted with dark stubble makes me want to roll back with him into the sand. I don't want to face what's waiting at home. Not yet. Life is about to shift again. Some parts happy, like expecting a beautiful baby and a second chance at love. My blue-eyed soul mate is eager, ready to begin anew. Other parts of life are unknown. Like where do I stand in the mess I left behind? How do I go on from here? It feels like we're waking on demon husks, treading on our past sins so carefully so we do not rouse them. But in the end it doesn't matter. Fate has already decided. It's not until we're back in New York that I realize the chain of events that were set in motion. By me. Billionaires can't save me. The Ferro name can't protect us. If I want to ensure my family is safe, I have to be the one to do it. Surviving justifies anything, right? I finally understand the lengths to which I must go to ensure our survival. FML. Things are about to get hard again."--
